

Sheppard

Stewart

LeRoy

Hirshfeld

Eisenberg

Lawrence Technological University invites you to a U.S. Patent & Trademark Office Legal Lecture and Expert Panel Discussion

101 Post-Alice:
How USPTO & Practitioners are Reacting

The legal lecture will be presented by Andrew Hirshfeld, the USPTO's Deputy Commissioner for Patent Examination Policy, on the USPTO's December 2014 interim guidance for patentable subject matter eligibility. Following the presentation, a panel of experts will discuss how the Alice v. CLS Bank International Supreme Court decision has impacted the USPTO and Practitioners.

Presented by
Elijah J. McCoy
USPTO Detroit Satellite Office

Free event, Free parking, No RSVP necessary

Wednesday,
May 20, 2015

Marburger Auditorium
Science Bldg., S100

4:00-5:00 pm

Andrew H. Hirshfeld,
Speaker

Dr. Christal Sheppard:
Moderator

Intellectual Property
Expert Panelists:

Rebecca S. Eisenberg
Andrew H. Hirshfeld
John LeRoy
Michael B. Stewart

21000 West Ten Mile
Southfield, MI 48075
248/204-2994

