

LIBRARY OF CONGRESS
LITERACY AWARDS

Michigan Center for the Book 2015

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS!

MICHIGAN CENTER FOR THE BOOK LITERACY AWARD

WHO: The Michigan Center for the Book would like to award an early childhood literacy award to one organization for their work with elementary age children. The award is open to a Michigan Public Library or Friends Group of a Michigan Public Library.

WHAT: the Award will be a $500 dollar cash award and tablet device.

WHEN: Selection will be made in late -September by the Michigan Center for the Book board members for 2015. Nominations are due September 17th, 2015.

WHERE: In 2015 the award will be announced in late September with the award being granted at a celebration to be determined with recipient.

HOW: Nominations may be submitted by any individual or organization. An essay should be submitted to the attention of:

MICHIGAN CENTER FOR THE BOOK
LITERACY AWARD
LIBRARY OF MICHIGAN
702 W. KALAMAZOO
LANSING, MI 48909

Nominations should not exceed 750 words and may contain up to three photos. Essays should provide detail on: the population served, children reached, and materials and methods used.

An organization dedicated to promoting literacy and book culture throughout the state.
WWW.FACEBOOK.COM/MICHIGANCENTERFORTHEBOOK

