

The Nature of Chocolate

Even though it doesn't grow here in the Great Lakes region, we are connected to the nature of chocolate every time we indulge! This program looks at the history, ecology and manufacturing of one of our favorite treats. A chocolate tasting is included as part of this educational yet sweet program. Children are welcome but must be accompanied by an adult.

Thursday, July 7, 2016
at 6:00 p.m.

Warren Civic Center Library
Conference Room

Please Call to Register:

586.574.4564

