

When you see the words STEM or STEAM, do you think of flowers and a teapot?
If so, please join us for

Mastering Media With UR Teen & Tween Patrons

This workshop will show you how to integrate STEAM into your teen and tween programs. You'll see a media lab inside a library and learn about portable media and maker kits. You will hear how two different libraries created their media/maker labs and learn how you can create similar tools that fit your budget.

Featured Speakers

Kristin Ballew, Calvin Battles, and Anna Merritt from the Jackson District Library

and Craig Buno from the Kent District Library

Jackson District Library's Meijer Branch

2699 Airport Rd, Jackson, MI 49202

Wednesday, November 30, 2016

1:30pm to 4:30 pm

Input and feedback from this workshop will help Woodlands Library Cooperative with the creation and implementation of portable media and maker kits to use with patrons in libraries

WLC Members: $10.00 Non-Members: $20.00

Register Online at <http://woodlands.lib.mi.us/calendar/workshops/>

This workshop is provided by the Woodlands Library Cooperative Children's & Teen Services Committee.

