

2017 SUMMER ART SHOW

“Building Blocks of Picture Book Art”

June 3 ~ August 26

at Saline District Library

Enjoy a unique show featuring original artwork from children's book illustrations housed at the Mazza Museum — a hidden gem at the University of Findlay, Ohio, and the world's first and most diverse collection of original artwork by children's book illustrators.

Through these select pieces you will encounter the creative processes behind picture book art — cover work, color separations, editorial notes on preliminaries, character development sketches, preparatory storyboards, and much more.

This exhibit has been arranged through the generosity of the individual artists contributing to Mazza Museum's Building Blocks of Picture Book Art exhibition, curated by Dan Chudzinski and the Mazza Museum, located at the University of Findlay.

Funding is generously provided through a grant from the Carl F. Schrandt Endowment Fund.
