

SOSLive Student Press Conference

with Secretary of State Ruth Johnson

WHAT: Michigan Secretary of State Ruth Johnson is hosting a rare opportunity for high school students to participate in a fully-produced “press conference” during the upcoming SOSLive family expo. During the press conference, students can participate as reporters and ask the secretary questions.

WHO: High school students interested in pursuing media-related careers. Government students are also welcome.

Note: Students must pre-register by October 4 via email to doylem@michigan.gov.

To ensure students from every school have an opportunity to ask questions, we ask that students provide all potential questions to the above email by October 4.
