Michiganders attended summer reading events in 2017.

Number of events being held

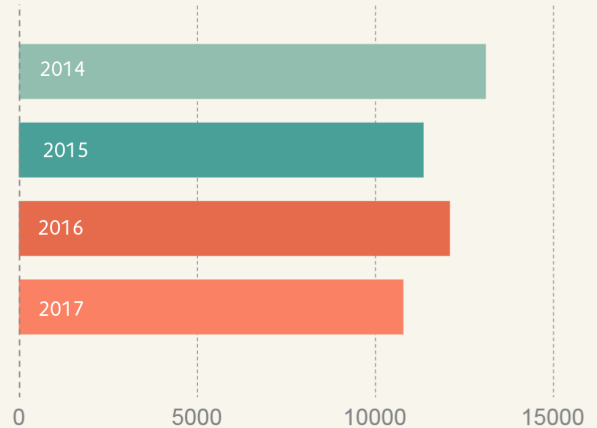

Number of signups by age group

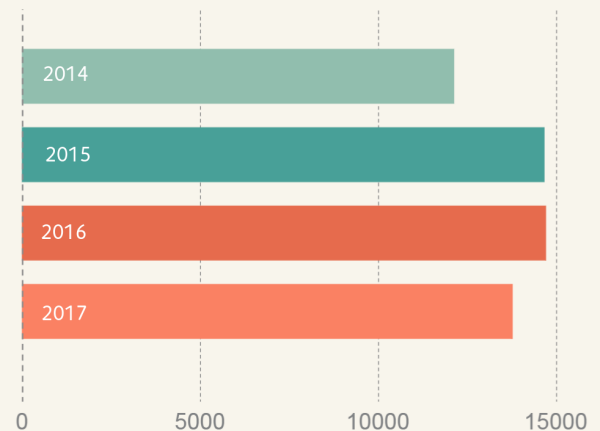

Children

Teens

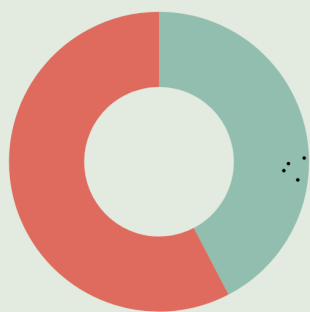

Adults

These numbers do not cover the libraries who do not track summer reading sign-ups, as well as those who have inter-generational programs. There seems to be a growing interest in ageless programming, and may be something we look towards tracking in the future.

2017 SNAPSHOT

42% of readers met the minimum reading goal for 2017
