

THE EVENING SESSIONS

 Monthly speaker series
Bay County Library System

Stephen Mack Jones

Wednesday
October 6
7:00 pm

VIRTUAL ONLY ON:  LIVE

Stephen Mack Jones is an award-winning playwright and recipient of the prestigious Kresge Arts in Detroit Literary Fellowship. Author of the Hammett Prize, Nero Award-winning thrillers AUGUST SNOW, LIVES LAID AWAY, and DEAD OF WINTER. Short-listed for the CWA Steel Dagger Award, finalist for the Seamus Award, and Michigan Notable Book Award winner. Jones was born in Lansing and currently lives in Farmington Hills. A TV adaptation of the August Snow series is currently in the works with ABC, produced and headlined by another Michigan native, Keegan-Michael Key!

Orphan Train Era

Presented by Al & Dave Eicher

Wednesday
October 20
7:00 pm

VIRTUAL ONLY ON:

In 2000, research historians and television producers Al and Dave Eicher discovered records of Orphan Train Riders in Michigan. By 2001, with the help of the New York Children's Aid Society and the Orphan Train Heritage Society of America, they reported 12,500 children placed in Michigan 1854-1927. Why was there an orphan train? Why did the parents of more than 240,000 children give them up? Find out in this engaging new program.

This program is made possible by a generous grant from the Bay Arts Council.

Register beginning 9 am 1 month prior to program.
