

Library Director Position Posting

Richland Community Library seeks a leader who can be the public face of the Library and who prioritizes communication, innovative team building and collaboration with the community. Having completed a carefully executed strategic plan within the past year, the Library is searching for an ambitious director to ensure implementation of the collection, services, programs and outreach our community requested. Our next director possesses a thorough knowledge of current trends and best practices for public libraries. The successful candidate will be a community-oriented leader who values the opportunity to interact with the public as a hands-on, customer-service-focused director. If you are looking for a professional challenge, look no further! The road map is clear and ready for you.

The Richland Community Library is a Class 3 District Library serving a population of approximately 9,600 in the Township and Village of Richland, Michigan. The Library Director leads a staff of ten employees and manages an annual operating budget of $450,000. Richland Community Library serves as a community hub by connecting our patrons to all forms of literacy, lifelong learning and growth. Our vibrant local community enjoys regular Library programming, including the Meet Michigan Author series, local history and genealogy projects, a Teen Advisory Board, many children's programs, and events focused on visual and literary arts. The Friends of the Library organization also provides support in the pursuit of fundraising and special events/projects.

Richland is located in southwest Michigan, approximately nine miles northeast of Kalamazoo (home of Western Michigan University and Kalamazoo College), and is known for its abundant natural beauty, including rivers, lakes and natural forests. The Village of Richland features an historic town square, which serves as a popular gathering space for all seasons and is home to Gull Lake Community Schools, an excellent public school district.
