Wednesday, March 23rd at 3 p.m.

As our nation is in the midst of debates over worker's rights and wages, it's important to know that this isn't the first battle workers have waged. Join Edmund La Clair and Dan Wood for a look back at the Newton Steel Strike of 1937. This strike took place right here in Monroe, MI. Picketers were confronted with bats, tear gas, and their cars were pushed into the river.
