New TALK Staff

March 2022

We welcomed Angie Martin-Schwarze to the TALK team in February. Angie comes to the project with a depth of experience in education, youth services, and public libraries. After 13 years in Iowa and two in Washington, she is thrilled to be back in Michigan.

Angie will serve as the new contact person if you have questions. She is looking forward to connecting with you all and helping to grow the TALK program to reach as many families as possible.

Tip of the Month

Are you starting to reconnect with parents and community partners? In February, YDL was able to host a slightly smaller version of our annual Preschool and Kindergarten Resource Fair.

We used the opportunity to promote TALK to preschools and parents. Angie signed parents up using the TALK webform and had them validate the sign up with their phone before leaving the library. Families also loved receiving TALK branded goodies like shakey eggs and sidewalk chalk.

Q&A Help Sessions

We are offering two drop-in Zoom sessions to help you get started and answer questions about accessing the toolkits and making community connections:

- Monday, March 21, 11:00- 12:00 <https://zoom.us/j/92884127588>
- Tuesday, April 5, 1:30 - 2:30 <https://zoom.us/j/94114840222>

Contact us at talk@ypsilibrary.org or 734-482-4110 x1340 any time.
